

JOHN B. KINCAID

PARTNER

John was singled out as a Laureate of the Academy of Illinois Lawyers in 2011. He has tried over 100 jury cases involving personal injury, landlord-tenant contract, construction, probate and divorce, including cases involving multiple parties. He was named as partner in the Hinshaw Culbertson firm in 1970. John currently serves as a member of the Character and Fitness Committee of the Illinois Supreme Court. He was President of the Illinois Bar Foundation 1996 through 1998, and he still serves on the Lawyers Subsistence Committee of that foundation. He served as President of the DuPage Bar Association in 1991 as well as its General Counsel. John has been a successful mediator of civil cases in Cook as well as DuPage Counties. Civically, John has served as President of the Wheaton United Way and as Elder and Trustee of the First Presbyterian Church.
